FLEECE

RIB

The image is a collage of terry cloth fabric samples. On the left, there are several pieces of green terry cloth, showing different textures and pile heights. On the right, there are several pieces of yellow terry cloth, also showing different textures and pile heights. The word "TERRY" is overlaid in the center in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The background is a mix of green and yellow, with a purple shape in the top right corner.
